

We're seeking

GOVERNING COUNCIL BOARD MEMBERS

The New Mexico Academy for the Media Arts (NMA-MA), formerly known as Media Arts Collaborative Charter School (MACCS), is currently seeking dedicated community members to join its Governing Council.

As a member of the council, you will help shape a project-based, cross-curricular education for secondary students centered on film, journalism, and digital media.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Strategic Oversight

Uphold the school's vision and ensure academic, financial, and organizational accountability.

- Policy & Governance

Establish and review organizational policies in accordance with the New Mexico Charter Schools Act.

- Financial Stewardship

Provide ethical and financial oversight to support the schools mission.

- Commitment

Attend regular meetings held on the 2nd Tuesday of each month at 12:00 PM (Noon) via a hybrid format (in-person and Zoom).

WHO WE'RE LOOKING FOR

The school is specifically seeking individuals with expertise in fields that ensure sound governance and institutional growth, including:

- PROFESSIONAL EXPERTISE

Business, Law, Finance, or Real Estate.

- FACILITIES & OPERATIONS

Building construction and maintenance.

- EDUCATION & COMMUNITY

Educational leadership or a passion for strengthening public education in New Mexico.

APPLY

